Amy,
You're a heck of a nice girl & ever since I've known you, you've been my friend. You're the kind of friend everyone
wants & should have.
Watch out for some of

can get pretty wild!
Stay out of trouble & stay
just the way you are.
Best of luck, forever!

good luck in all you do and
please try to stay out of trouble.

The Stars

The 1980 Extravaganza, with the theme "Weekend with the Stars" left no room for competition as the whole show was the highlight.

Dances by the pom-pon girls were done to the songs "There's No Business Like Show Business." Theme from "Chips," Theme from "Vegas," "Dallas," "Championship," and the Senior girls went together to surprise the audience with their dazzling skills in "K-Gee."

Some specialties of the Band were "El Dorado (a salute to the Duke), Star Trek, and Walt Disney Overture.

We certainly can't forget the fantastic singing of Barry Stadler in his rendition of the Bologna Song.

If you were in the Saturday night audience, then you remember the special attention you received when the fuse of the television went out during the William Tell Overture (the Lone Ranger Theme) as TV Repairman Tom Stadler took special care in fixing the TV and getting the show on the road again.

Even though the Mt. Vernon Varsity Basketball Team suffered through a dismal 5-16 season, first year coach, Steve Leonard remains optimistic. Coach Leonard believes the Marauder Basketball Program has now "turned the corner" and that the basketball future looks bright for Old Gold and White fans.

Though the Mt. Vernon roundballers lose four fine senior players in Chris Stunda, Toby Schauer, Jeff Flach, and Jeff Collins, the Marauders will return next year with seven lettermen who accounted for more than three-fourths of the scoring and two-thirds of the Marauder rebounding this season.

Success

To laugh often and much; to win respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition, to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived. This is to have succeeded.

JAMES E. STRUNK

"No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main . . . Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind . . ." John Donne

We will remember Mr. Strunk as a social studies teacher, as the driver of the sports team bus, and the man selling tickets for the athletic contests. But most of all, we will remember him as a friend.

Amy, what can I say that hasn't already been said? I have been since way back, had to you great friends ever since we were in elementary school. I would always know if I had problem, I knew I have an open ear. cause you'd have an open chest but yet didn't want something to get off my chest to know, if you were the person to many people to know, if you were the person could trust. Amy, I always will. So I hope you my own sister & have all the luck in the world & that you want. get everything out of life.

July 1st, 1981.

Amy!
to a girl who is in my Latin class
and is a good friend too.
You are fun to talk to.
I even though it gets me in trouble but I don't mind because you and fun talking to you always Good luck always
and have fun like now
whoever you are.
and for ever.

P.S. Good luck always

What can I say?
You are the sweetest friend
I have! You help me through problems, and I, try to help you too.
I glad you there! We've had many good times.
And I've met some people from different schools
because of you! (Who do I know!)
Good luck with your nurses for "Jug 2"
in the world with you!
Dearest things to you!

You &
friends Robyn
